Let The Earth Be Glad

Choral settings of the Psalms

Saturday 16 November 2024 at 7.30pm

All Saints Weston, Chestnut Avenue, Esher, KT10 8JL

Patrick Allies Conductor
Benedict Lewis-Smith Organ

Thomas Tallis Excerpts from Nine Psalm Tunes for Archbishop Parker's Psalter

Bobby McFerrin The 23rd Psalm (dedicated to my mother)

J.S. Bach Lobet den Herrn, BWV 230 (Psalm 117)

Chiara Margarita Cozzolani Laetatus sum (Psalm 122)

Gregorio Allegri Miserere (Psalm 51)

Felix Mendelssohn Richtet mich, Gott (Psalm 43)

Caroline Shaw and the swallow (Psalm 84)

Henry Purcell Hear my prayer, O Lord (Psalm 102) and I was glad (Psalm 122)

Heinrich Schütz Psalmen Davids: An den Wassern zu Babel, SWV 37 (Psalm 137)

Jauchzet dem Herren, SWV 36 (Psalm 100)

Step into the world of sublime harmonies and profound musical expression with The Ripieno Choir as we explore iconic choral settings of the Psalms, illuminating the Bible's ancient poetry with passionate music.

Bach's exuberant spirit takes centre stage with his vibrant and joyous motet Lobet den Herrn, while Allegri's hauntingly beautiful Miserere conveys echoes of the Sistine Chapel.

Purcell's majestic I was glad and Chiara Margarita Cozzolani's Laetatus sum provide intricate and expressive settings of Psalm 122, while Schütz's exuberant setting of Psalm 100 Jauchzet dem Herren contrasts with the tranquillity of and the swallow by current rising star Caroline Shaw.

We're delighted to be joined by Benedict Lewis-Smith, Director of Music at St Columba's Church Knightsbridge and one half of the Oxbridge Organ Duo, playing the chamber organ for an extra layer of grandeur. We hope you will join us, and delight in this vibrant mix of musical Psalm settings.
